CORRESPONDENCE

An Open Letter Protestant Church Lay People regard to the The National Council of Churches of Christ

The National Council of Churches is now under the domination of a small group of professional one-world, idealist clergy, who may be termed liberal, or left wing, depending upon your own political philosophy. This group has taken it upon themselves to speak in the name of 40,000,000 Protestants and have, as a consequence, made the National Council one of the most potent political organizations in the country. Either directly or indirectly, through one of their many subdivisions, including denominational affiliated Social Action groups, they have taken actions such as those listed below, plus many more:

1. That the United States recognize Red China and admit Red China to the United Nations;
2. That the United States suspend atomic bomb testing, even on a unilateral basis;
3. That the United States show greater willingness to let World Courts settle disputes;
4. That a purely national concept of security is wrong;
5. That the United States abolish universal military training;
6. That the House Un-American Activities Committee be abolished; (N.C.C. members in this instance placed a full page advertisement in the Washington Post and took the lead in securing petitions)
7. That the United States re-establish diplomatic relations with Fidel Castro (R. W. Moon, Methodist Social Action).

8. Active leaders in the August 28, 1963 "March on Washington."

9. Lobbying for the Repeal of Section 14B of Taft-Hartley Act "Right to Work"

The control by the National Council of Churches rests in two boards, the General Board and the General Assembly, each composed of approximately two-thirds Clergy and one-third Laymen. At the time of organization in 1950, lay persons were represented by the National Lay Committee. The National Lay Committee opposed the National Council pronouncements on political, social and economic matters but the General Board refused to publish or publicize the Lay opposition. Finally, in order to silence Lay opposition, the General Board, on March 17, 1954, took action to dissolve the National Lay Committee as of June 30, 1955. Since that date, with no effective opposition, the National Council, or affiliates listed, have taken the position listed above on political matters. It is interesting to note that Dr. Eugene Carson Blake was President of the National Council of Churches when the National Lay Committee headed by Mr. J. Howard Pew was refused an extension of life.

Any Lay person who now dares to speak out against actions of N.C.C. is accused of making scurrilous attacks and being from the Ultra-Right (Communist term for one who opposes Communist Party plans - See Red Manifesto of December 5, 1960 ("The New Drive Against the Anti-Communist Program" - July 11, 1961 U. S. Government printing office).

The Communist Party under the direction of Frank Wilkinson organized a nation-wide drive to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. This drive reached its peak in January, 1963. One of the propaganda pieces that the Communist Party used was the full-page advertisement in the New York Times of February 22, 1962 urging that H.C.U.A. be abolished. This advertisement carries 610 signatures including many prominent Church leaders. While N.C.C. may take no official board action supporting this Communist objective, the fact remains that top N.C.C. leaders are themselves personally supporting the Communist objective. There is no likelihood that the National Council of Churches or the affiliated denominations will do anything to counter this drive on the part of the Communist Party. This indicates tacit approval.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake led the demonstration in Baltimore directed against a privately-owned amusement park in July 1963. He knew that he was breaking the law, yet he, a leading clergyman, encouraged this mass demonstration. Socialism requires the breakdown of property rights of the individual, as does Communism. Here is an example of the lengths to which N.C.C. leaders will go in order to bring about a socialistic, one-world, one church society.

Socialism and Communism have much in common. The leaders of the National Council of Churches have actively campaigned for every piece of Socialistic legislation that has passed the Congress since 1950 when N.C.C. came into being. They have in fact been the instigators of much of it.

The Church, as an organization, does not belong in politics. Only a lay revolt can get them out since the clergy has perfected an organization as stated above which assures the clergy complete control.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

About a month ago I wrote you inquiring about any public statements you have made about the National Council of Churches. We have a reader information service and one reader had called and asked if you have ever made any public statements about the Council.

Your secretary replied that you were out of town but would be shown my letter upon your return. She said material in F.B.I. files is confidential.

I did not asked for any material from the files. I simply asked what statements, if any, you have made publicly about the National Council of Churches. I don't care if there is or is not material on the National Council of Churches in F.B.I. files. All I care about is knowing whether you have made any public statements about the Council and, if so, where I could obtain copies.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am chairman of a committee of our church, appointed by the chairman of the Board of Stewards, to ascertain some truth about the National Council of Churches. Will you be kind enough to answer the following questions?

As Director of the FBI have you made any public statements about the N. C. of C.? If you have please give me the gist of any such statements. Or copies if available.

To your knowledge has there ever been any question as to the character, affiliations or interests of any of the officers of this organization?

If you will answer the above for me and give me any other information relative to the activities of this Council I will be indebted to you and it will help to settle some questions in the minds of some good people.

Dear Sir:

Perhaps you can assist me with a problem that I am deeply concerned with. I am [redacted] of the Church Council of the [redacted] of St. Louis, Missouri, which is a member of Missouri Synod of the United Church of Christ, which is, as I understand it, a member of the National Council of Churches.

Our minister has approached us with a radical idea that seems very questionable. He is proposing that several of our young people discontinue attending church, although they would continue to render financial support to the church, and meet in groups of six to twelve in the homes of members of these groups, without the direction of the ordained ministry of the church for the purpose of "trying to find our relationship to Christianity".

Several of our members have questioned this for various reasons, however, the question of communistic tendencies has occurred here. I or no member of our congregation can possibly be sure exactly what this approach implies, but we do apparently need the confidential assistance of some person who is an expert on communism, communist organization, and communist tactics. If you would be so kind, please forward any information that you feel would be helpful to us in determining whether or not this action follows a subversive pattern. In no way do I want this to be

Dear Mr. Hoover,

A North Carolina minister recently made a public statement in which he said your office had issued a statement "clearing" the National Council of Churches of any taint of subversion.

One of our readers has challenged the minister's statement on grounds that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is purely an investigative agency and does not issuance clearances for persons or organizations.

Has the F.B.I. any statement of record concerning the National Council of Churches? Would you please forward a copy to me.

Gentlemen

I wonder if you could give me a brief statement which would be usable in stating the status of the National Council of Churches.

I have met with a number of accusations of this organization which I know is not true. It is to the effect that the National Council of Churches is a communist organization.

I believe this originates with a Carl MacIntyre who broadcasts over radio, and which is picked up in this area for broadcast. There probably are others also who make such WILD statements.

It is my opinion that the American Council of Churches led by this man MacIntyre is to religion, what the John Birch Society is to politics. It stirs up contention and questionings, which, in my opinion, is just what the communists want.

Any statement which you can give me, which will help, will be greatly appreciated for it is rather difficult to counteract such, without some concrete backing.

Thank you.

Sincerely

SUBJECT: NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Some press accounts have indicated that the National Council of Churches has recommended that China be admitted to the United Nations. These press accounts are false. On talking to Reverend James C. Moore today, he advised me that recently a conference of delegates of various Protestant churches affiliated with the National Council of Churches met in St. Louis. They discussed and considered many, many different religious and social issues and set forth a list of their findings and suggestions. Among them was:

"The United States without prejudice to its own policy of diplomatic recognition sees its opposition to the seating of the Peoples Republic of China in the United Nations under conditions which take into account the welfare, security, and future political status of Taiwan. Careful study should be given to recognizing diplomatic communications with Red China (Peoples Republic of China) and conditions under which diplomatic recognition might be appropriately extended."

Reverend Moore pointed out that all these findings and suggestions will be sent to the National Council of Churches for consideration. He said he sees no likelihood that the Board of the National Council of Churches would vote in favor of admitting Red China to the United Nations. He pointed out that the last time that such a suggestion was sent to the National Council of Churches as a result of a conference held it was voted down strongly. Another one of the findings of this recent conference was that the Christian churches of the United States should take every opportunity to establish contact with Christians in China. Still another finding was that every effort should be made to involve Red China in disarmament talks and to control nuclear weapons in the China area.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

October 28, 1965

Would you be able to give me any information you may have available regarding the activities of the National Council of Churches?

I have heard and read much about the things it advocates and have arrived at the conclusion that it leans to the 'pink' side to say the least. Several years ago I seem to remember that the House Committee on Un-American Activities actually accused the Council of siding with the Communists.

I do not want any information for publicity purposes. I am active in our local church and would like very much to set my mind at rest because I am beginning to suspect the trend away from good Americanism. In other words, I am beginning to be very concerned that our denomination belongs to the Council. Perhaps, you could guide me to some reliable source if you are unable to give me the desired information.

Dear [REDACTED]

Your letter of October 8th has been received.

With respect to your inquiry, there apparently is a misunderstanding. Neither Assistant Director William C. Sullivan nor any other representative of this Bureau has released a report on the National Council of Churches. Therefore, I am certain you will understand why I cannot be of help in this instance.

Enclosed is some literature it is hoped will be of interest to you. Material which this Bureau is privileged to disseminate is sent free of charge.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Dear Sir:

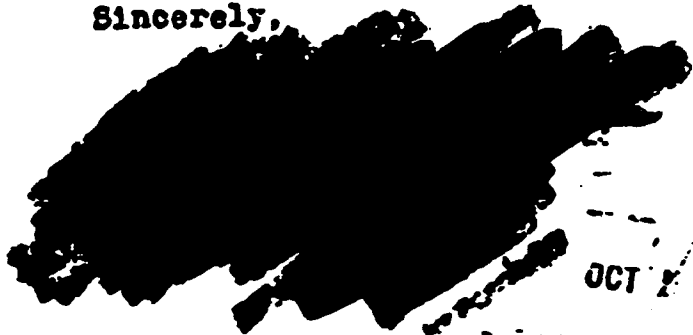

At a business meeting of our church I was appointed the chairman of a committee of three to study into the National Council of Churches. It is the wish of some in the church to withdraw from the American Baptist Convention in order to sever relations with the N.C.C. A vote will be taken in the near future. The main issue is the accusation of Communism in the N.C.C.

The booklet Has The Methodist Church Gone Mad?, by A. H. McGregor, attributes the following statement to you: "Protestants everywhere should demand that their churches get out of the National Council, thus shutting off their money supply."

My question is, did you make the above statement? If so, do you still at this time recommend withdrawal from the Council, and upon what do you base your stand?

As Christians and loyal Americans we wish to make the proper decision. We would greatly value your advice in the matter.

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]

Your letter of September 22nd, with enclosures, has been received.

The Communist Party in this country has attempted to infiltrate and subvert every segment of our society. The Party's efforts, however, are being thwarted by the FBI's internal security programs, by investigation, arrest and prosecution of Party functionaries, and by widespread, intelligent public opposition to the communist philosophy. These achievements are being accomplished through orderly, legal procedures.

Despite the above, the world communist conspiracy and its advocates in the United States continue to pose a basic threat to our country. It is important that our citizens educate themselves concerning the true nature of this insidious philosophy in order that they will be able to resist its eroding influence. At the same time opposition to communism must be careful and constructive and kept within the due process of law. It is not enough to be merely against communism. We should exhibit in positive ways the superiority of our form of government over any foreign ideology.

While I would like to be of further assistance to you, information contained in our files must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. I am sure you will understand the reason for this policy and why I am unable to comment as you desire.

Dear Sir:

I need advice. I am just a housewife, but believe in God and go to church. The enclosed papers are last Sunday's lesson from the literature, the cover from the quarterly, the picture, and name of the man who wrote the lesson.

This is what I want to know, concerning the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. I have read many, many, articles concerning the infiltration of Communists in the N.C.C.C., in the United Nations and the Federal Government, such as this article in the ~~letter~~ talks about. Many of these articles quote you, saying this is a fact.

Now here in this lesson, this man is telling us these things are written by hate mongers, and we are not to believe them. I would like the facts. I am getting to the place where I don't know who to believe. Who are our enemies? There can be, as uninformed people, find the answers? I would certainly appreciate any information you could send to me on the John Birch Society.

Any information you could send would be very much appreciated. Thank you, BIBLE LESSONS FOR ADULTS, designed especially for churches having only one adult class, can help you study the Bible. The lessons are based on the outlines of the International Lesson Series.

The September lessons conclude the unit on "Christian Growth." In October and November the study is based on nine Old Testament biographies.

On the twelve pages preceding the lessons are helpful articles.

Why not use "Recognition of Church School Workers" in a service in your church?

"The Case Against Gambling" should make readers aware of the serious nature of the gambling problem.

Do you look upon "Thanksgiving as Creative Responsibility"?

"Check for the Truth" is good advice for all of us.

Growing in Understanding And Patience

AIM OF THE LESSON: To show how patience grows out of understanding.

MEMORY SELECTION: Let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
—Galatians 6:9

Revised Standard Version: Let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart.

READ THE LESSON FROM YOUR BIBLE: Galatians 6:1-10; Philippians 4; Colossians 3:12-15. We print below Philippians 4:1-7; Colossians 3:12-15 with interpretation and comment.

Roy H. Ryan is the writer of this lesson. See page 12.

The Need for Understanding

PAUL encouraged his friends in Philippi to settle their arguments peacefully, to be understanding, patient, and loving. People in our time would see a big difference in human relations if they took Paul's advice seriously.

The high divorce rate illustrates one crucial area in which communication between persons seems to have broken down. When marriage partners let little problems go unsolved, they finally become big problems.

Misunderstanding also results when there is lack of communication between parents and children. Husband and wife, parents and children have to work at this matter of understanding.

Self-understanding is also important. Many of the anxieties and frustrations which come to us could be avoided, or lessened, if we could understand ourselves. Every Christian must earnestly seek to understand himself, his motives, and his reason for being.

The Need for Harmony

Philippians 4:1-4

1 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eu-o'-di-as [you-O-dee-us], and beseech Syn'-ty-che [SIN-ti-kee], that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

THE CHRISTIANS at Philippi, under Nero's rule, faced a situation that was much like the German Christians faced under Hitler.

Only those who "stand fast in the Lord" can bear up under the pressure of such dictators. We are called to stand fast today. The church's witness is weakened when the people in the church fail to cooperate and work together. United effort is a source of strength.

One such cooperative opportunity comes to Christian people through the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. Thirty-one denominations work together through the council to carry the Christian witness around the world.

The preamble to the constitution of the National Council of Churches states the need for harmonious cooperation: "In the Providence of God, the time has come when it seems fitting more fully to manifest oneness in Jesus Christ as Divine Lord and Savior, by the creation of an inclusive cooperative agency of the Christian Churches of the United States. . . ."

Christians in one church can cooperate more fully with Christians of other churches if they understand other Christian groups.

Many people are criticizing the church. Some of these critics are outside; others are inside the church. Let us examine some of their criticisms.

"You Christians sing, 'we are not divided, all one body we,' and yet there are over 250 denominations in America."

"I work for better social conditions in our community, but most of the opposition I face comes from church people."

"The churches in our town spend most of their time fighting each other. How can people say they worship the same God when they are not even willing to take communion together?"

Have you heard such criticisms? How can we bridge the gap that exists between what we profess to believe and what we do?

"Be of the same mind in the Lord" is the admonition that we find in Paul's Letter. What does this statement mean to you? Being "of the same mind in the Lord" means that we can disagree without being disagreeable, and we can have different ideas and still work together.

Do Not Be Anxious

Philippians 4:5-7

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

THE REVISED STANDARD Version translates the phrase, "Be careful for nothing" as "have no anxiety about anything."

Some persons try to live in the past, present, and future all at the same time; and in so doing they make a great mistake. The sins and failures of yesterday crowd in upon our lives unless we seek and accept God's forgiveness.

We cannot live tomorrow any more than we can relive yesterday. Today is the only day we have. Learn to live well each today, and you will take care of both the past and future.

Paul felt that "the Lord is at hand." The early Christians expected an early return of Jesus Christ. We may not hold the same view, but as Christians we need to be aware that today could be our last. We need to live each day in useful ways.

Anxiety should not be confused with fear. Anxiety results when we are threatened by conscious or unconscious factors that produce a situation which we cannot solve.

How can a person avoid anxiety? It is easy to say, "Don't worry," but it is not always easy to keep from worrying. Paul said, "In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Philippians 4:6). Why don't you substitute prayer for worry?

A Christian should not worry, but he should be concerned. Concern is a sign of love.

The anxious spirits of men could be healed if they would accept Paul's counsel, "Let your requests be made known unto God." We are to ask in the spirit and attitude of Jesus. He prayed, "Not my will but thine be done."

Christian Virtues

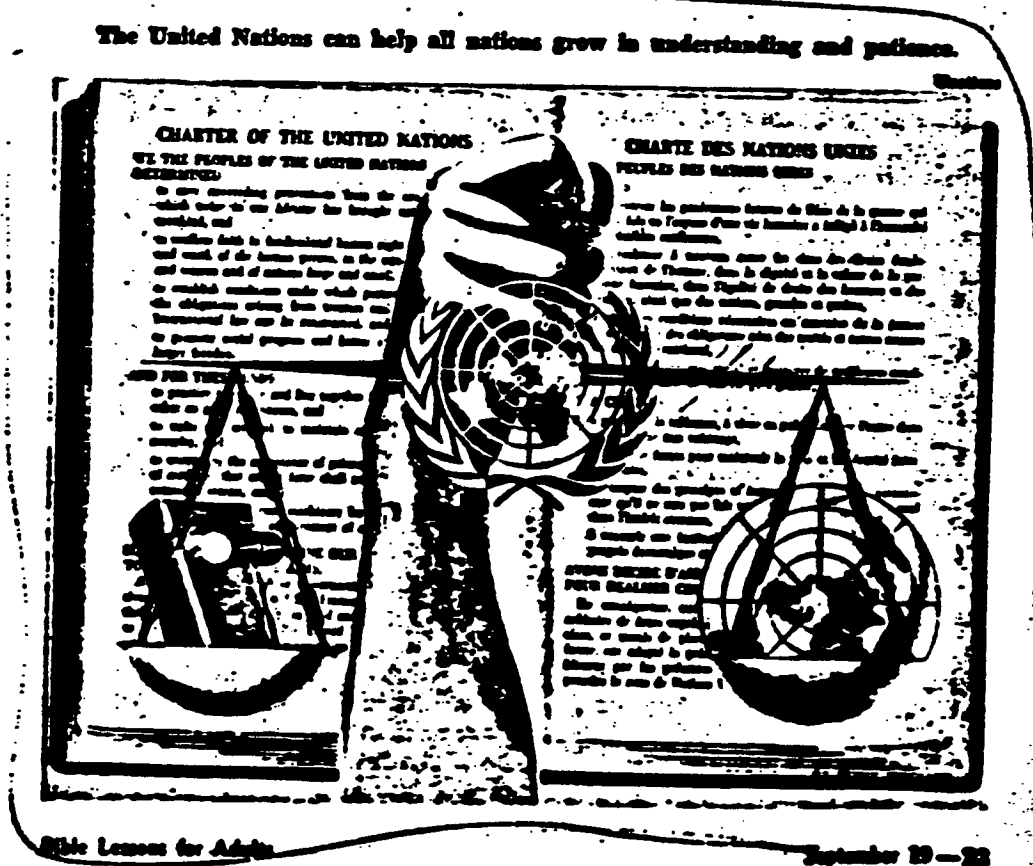

Colossians 3:12-14

12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

The United Nations can help all nations grow in understanding and patience.

GOD HAS called us through the church to Christian witness and redemptive action in society. We are called to work at reconciliation.

Where there are wounds—we will seek to be the healing balm. We will try to bring understanding among persons. We do not build fences to separate men from men, and men from God. We are bridge builders, engaged in the task of bringing individuals and groups closer to each other in genuine understanding.

Mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, and longsuffering are important Christian virtues. The goodness of the Christian life is not reflected in those who are hard and unkind.

The love of God in our hearts places upon us the demand to do good and seek the well-being of others. Persons grow in forbearance and patience as they learn to live with those who do not think just as they think.

How do you respond when your ideas and viewpoints are in conflict with another's ideas and viewpoints? As long as there can be dialogue (two-way communication) between those who have differences of opinion, there is hope.

The disciples came to Jesus with a question. "Lord, how often shall we forgive those who sin against us? Shall we forgive them seven times?"

They thought they were being unusually generous, but Jesus saw what his disciples were thinking. He told them there was no limit to forgiveness.

Men and women who harbor ill will and hatred in their hearts can never be free to grasp the greater realities of God. Only he who forgives is capable of receiving God's forgiveness. We learn to forgive by forgiving.

The Peace of God

Colossians 3:15

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

PEACE COMES to those who love God. This is an inward peace which the world cannot give nor take away.

There are hate peddlers all over our nation today. Some of them even operate under the guise of religion. Dr. Tom Shipp, pastor of Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas, tells of being in another part of the nation on a preaching mission. After the service, a man came by and invited him to dinner. The man said that he had made $150,000 the previous year by producing and distributing pamphlets attacking the federal government, the United Nations, and the National Council of Churches.

Dr. Shipp felt that he had met the man before. Later he realized that it was in the Dallas jail that he had first seen the man.

Do not let yourself be taken in by those who peddle hate and suspicion. How much better it is to work for understanding.

Thinking Together

1. How may we improve understanding among the nations of the world?

2. What are some ways to strengthen the witness of the Christian church around the world?

3. Do you understand the organization and work of the National Council of Churches? Ask your pastor to help your class better understand this organization.

4. What is the difference between fear and anxiety?

5. What is worry? How can you avoid it?

Check for the Truth

By HENRY M. BULLOCK

*All that glitters is not gold.
All that you hear is not so.
All that you read is not truth.
Don't be afraid to check.*

I HAVE in my library a nicely printed, bound volume published years ago and purporting to set the date for the end of the world shortly after its publication. The writer quoted the Bible copiously and claimed that certain acts of Congress, the president, and the Roman Catholic Church proved we were in the last days.

It may have sounded plausible to some readers twenty years ago when it was written—especially if one was against the political party and candidate the writer was identifying with anti-Christ. But fortunately the world did not accommodate the writer by coming to an abrupt end.

And the book today shows what it really was—the work of either a misguided zealot or a political charlatan. He was willing to smear a church, a president, and Congress to justify his prejudice and advance his candidate, party, and church. Unfortunately there have been many such mistaken zealots throughout history.

We are now witnessing attacks on great American leaders, on the government, on churches, and councils of churches. These attacks come in radio programs, magazines, and other printed material.

Sincere Christians have special need today to study their own Bibles—seeking the help and guidance of their church and pastor so they may know for themselves what the Bible, especially the New Testament, really teaches and what the gospel really is.

Methodist Christians should never claim that their church is infallible and that Christians are beyond the pale. But they need to keep their eyes open and search for the truth amid all the propaganda of our day.

Here's a Check List to Help:

All that glitters is not gold. All that you hear is not so. All that you read is not truth. In these days of cross fire between propaganda on the radical left and the radical right, don't be afraid to ask the following questions:

1. Who said it? Did he actually say it? Who published it? Missing name, address, or clear identification may mean the author is hiding. Ask yourself why.

2. Where is the proof? If a sensational charge is NOT documented by a known and respected authority, insist on seeing the evidence for yourself. (The printing of an item in the Congressional Record is NOT proof of its truth. Much that is in the Congressional Record is personal opinion, as anyone can see by examining a few issues.

3. Read "the fine print"; don't depend on headlines. Headlines are designed to get the attention of the reader, but they may also convey a totally misleading understanding of what happened.

4. Note the date of a statement. Don't base your opinion on an out-of-date quotation. Great Americans have been maligned as communist dupes because during World War II they, along with President Roosevelt and General Eisenhower, supported cooperation with Russia, with whom we were allied against Germany.

5. Does it mean what it seems to say? A key word or phrase left out at the beginning or end of a sentence or paragraph can reverse the whole meaning. By itself a single sentence or even an entire paragraph is often misleading. A quotation out of context can make anyone seem to say what he doesn't mean.

6. Watch for trick photography and misleading captions which can make a picture seem to be what it is not.

7. Watch the organizations that you join, sign petitions for, or accept opinions from. Some organizations and publications are as phony as a three-dollar bill. The name may sound respectable and reputable; but it may cloak misguided, malicious slander, or propaganda for subversion of the left or the right.

"THE END OF YOUR SEARCH FOR A FRIENDLY CHURCH"

October 20, 1965

J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Perhaps someone on your staff will be kind enough to send me some information.

As an active member of a Sunday School Class and Church we have had discussions on the merits or faults of the National Council of Churches.

Our Church is a member of the Council but it is our free choice whether we support it or not.

In seeking information we are not trying to discredit anyone or prove anyone right-- we are seeking to find as nearly as possible the truth.

The question: "is the NCC Communist-infiltrated?"

We are a small group but we would like to uphold the NCC if it is what the organization says it is-- on the other hand if it is what others say it is we would not want to support it. It is so confusing, I decided to ask someone I thought would really know.

Any information on this would be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

I have heard and have been shown a supposed "document" that the FBI is currently investigating the International Convention of Christian Churches Disciples of Christ and the National Council and World Council of Churches for linkage with the Communist Party. I, and several of my members who have been given the same information, would greatly appreciate it if you could give us any insight as to the validity of this information.

If these groups have been or are being investigated and if the information is not confidential we would be interested in any findings you might be able to relay to us, and if there has never been such an investigation we would of course like to know that.

John Edgar Hoover,
Director of the F.B.I.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Our church, The Lutheran Church in America, recently joined the National Council of Churches. Some of us in our local church are quite concerned. We have heard reports that just do not seem to fit in with Christian teaching.

We have heard that they published a list of books which they recommend for reading that were written by Communists. They also put out a pamphlet "Called to Responsible Freedom" which as far as we can find out recommends free love. I called our local Council of Churches and asked about this list of books and asked for the pamphlet. They said they would get in touch with me but I have heard nothing. We have also heard there are numerous Communists in the National Council of Churches.

If these things are true we feel that our church should get out of the NCC. However we do want to be sure before we bring them up at our annual meeting.

We feel that you are the one who can set us straight in these matters and would be ever so grateful for whatever help you can give us.

I personally want to tell you what a great man I think you are. I believe that you and Billie Graham are the two greatest men in our country, in the world for that matter. May God bless you and give you a long and blessed life to continue your fine work. I shudder to think of the day when you will not be the head of the F.B.I.

I am a Sunday School teacher and I used excerpts from two of your speeches, loaned me by a neighbor, for our Sunday morning lesson period. We had a very good discussion period as a result. I have eighth graders in my class and I am very concerned for all young people. I am sixty-one and it is not for myself that I worry about world conditions.

Respectfully yours,

Since you did not write the first letter or make any statement, the only conclusion that can come to is that this letter over your signature was forgery.

This second letter that was mentioned to me, in my opinion could be forgery also.

So I am asking you the straight question, did you write a letter to the National Council of Churches praising them for the good work they were doing?

The Council branded the book written by John Stomer, "None Were Called It Treason" as deliberate misrepresentation; and Bishop Mueller president of the Council accused the Indianapolis Star of misrepresentation in an editorial, Thursday, April 22, 1965.

In response to your inquiry concerning the menace of communism, the Communist Party in this country has attempted to infiltrate and subvert every segment of our society. However, the Party's efforts are being thwarted by the FBI's internal security programs, by investigation, arrest and prosecution of Party functionaries, and by widespread, intelligent public opposition to the Communist philosophy. These achievements are being accomplished through orderly, legal procedures.

April - 1965 -

J Edgar Hoover,
F. B. I.
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir:-

I have been wanting to write this long while, and after much thought took this time to do so.

First of all the National Council of Churches. They blame them for being Communist inspired and I beleive it. As one of our Minister's said, -- "They are the James' brothers in disguise".

My husband and I are very sincere Christians. We read our Bible, live a prayer-ful life, and no one can fool us about Christianity. The reason I tell you this is that I belonged to a United Presbyterian Church, (old denomination that merged with the Presbyterians--, now called Presbyterian U. S. A.) for 17 years and my husband about 25 years. We noticed their leniency in letting members join. A good Christian Church has a stiff list of Bible questions to ask and Answer before joining Church. First of all, all the leaders should be Christians, and not everyone is a Christian, - then they can tell who they are taking in as members.

Most of the older denominations have become apostate, and liberal (gone to the world instead of spiritual), and individuals can come to their Church, one Sunday, and join the next Sunday, and don't tell me that news of this looseness don't get around. One of our ministers said it it is his belief that Communists have infiltrated many of our Nation's Churches, Seminaries and Divinity schools. In fact he told of a Communist defector's testimony before a Congressional Committee that the party felt the best way to destory religion in America is to infiltrate religion itself.

AUG 12 1965

Has this not happened? Did they not get one thing accomplished by getting Bible reading and prayer out of Government schools? The National Council of Churches endorsed this - and why would you think they would? Churches who profess Christianity? What's back of this? Well - back of it all, the leniency of allowing people to join their Churches. Anyone can join. They don't know really who they take in as members. All they boast of is how many members they have - not that they are Christians. Getting anyone in as members entitles the members to vote at their Congregational meetings. That way these people get at the head of the Church and if they are intelligent enough they can go to Presbyteries (their district meeting) get voted in, then to Synods, the National organization. This way they get to send recommendations to Congress, vote on all issues etc.

You can tell the trend of voting especially of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. The voting these days is everything, but Christian. Who gets at the head of these Churches? My husband and I as well as over 100 members left the U. P. Church. Good Christians, Mr. Hoover, are slowly going out.

Dr. Charles S. Poling, a strong bulwark of the United Presbyterian Church wrote a letter to the State clerk, Presbytry of Phoenix, and said, "I'm instructing you to erase my name from the roster of the Ministers of the Presbytry of Phoenix, of the United Presbyterian Church of U. S. A.

"I cannot be said give loyal support to a church that, through official action and pronouncements unites with the forces of evil and goes on record as opposing historic beliefs and doctrines that made us great and lent dignity and meaning to our preaching. I refer to the General Assembly's action relating to "public prayers, religious observances, religious holidays, Christian scenes, Bible reading in schools, and on school property; opposition to Sunday Closing laws." and other deliverances one would expect Atheistic groups to take, but never such action from a Church bearing the name and banner of our Lord and Saviour. I cannot longer find fellowship in a Church that blindly submits to the rule of Dr Eugene Carson Blake who seems dominated by an omnipotent complex, associates with listed known Communists, deliberately breaks the laws of a sovereign state, and leads marches that can inspire hate, and provoke violence. And I yield to no man in desire to see minority groups enjoying full and restricted blessings and opportunities my own race enjoys. When my Church becomes the captive to the ultra liberal and Apostate National Council of Churches, and the World Council and yields obedience to socialistic, political hierarchy, my Church' can no longer claim my support and respect. I will not sin by remaining silent while my Presbytery considers becoming a member of the NAACP, a militant political organization. Our denomination's new media, all papers and magazines have been captured by the ultra liberals, and serve notice that there is no place in the U. P. Church U. S. A. for Conservatives.

Mr. Hoover you can tell now what the National Council of Churches is, but yet they can get anywhere in the Government under the guise of Christianity. A cloak - Wolves in sheeps clothing.

This good Christian man, Dr. Poling served that denomination nearly fifty years. He said that all those years they were "giants in the land, proud of their Church because they were accredited Ministers. They thundered God's truths. Today when we need the church at it's best, it is lost. He said that today there is a crushing hand of shame for his beloved Church, and great sadness in his heart.

Dr. Poling comes from a long line of Ministers.

What then, is in back of these Churches? And they are using the good Christians still in their denominations, who haven't left yet, for a front to do their dirty work.

A good Christian would never be for that Civil Rights Legislation. Our Saviour said, "Thou shalt love the Lord with all thy heart, and with all they soul etc." Love is something from the heart of man that expresses itself in deeds and words. The Civil Rights bili doesn't produce love, but hate, and bitterness. The idea that everyone in this Nation is a child of God, and there should be brotherhood of men is completely in error. It's not found in the Holy scriptures. A person has to accept Jesus Christ, and be born again to be a child of God, and if everyone in our Nation was, there wouldn't have to be Civil Rights Legislation. Everyone would treat others right. I can't see private property that God gives us, and that we are responsible for should be subject to federal regulation and intervention, giving the Government a responsibility over private property. The law of God as set forth by the Ten Commandments says we must seek to protect the individual and his encroachment attack, and destruction by Federal authority.

The true Church cannot help to restrict the liberty of all our people.

A spirit of lawlessness and even riot was stimulated in order to obtain Civil rights legislation, and true Christians waited in vain for President Johnson to discourage and denounce this fundamental assault upon Civil order itself. It should have merited his stern repudiation. When lawlessness and mob action are used to induce legislation and intimidate legislators, the integrity of this Republic is under assault. Such acts of law violation are sin before God. As Christians we should respect the laws of the land. The Civil rights activity has not done this. And then he calls on the National Council of Churches for help. The President of the United States should have no authority inside the religious life of the Churches of this Nation.

We do not need federal legislation. What we all need is to be brought face to face with Almighty God.

Just recently columnist Doris O. Sanders of the Newberry S. C. Sun, reported on March 4, 1965, a controversy in which her Column has become involved with the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.

The column she said brought reactions pro and con, but happily most of them "pro" the Column, not the NCC. People, she said is wakening up; and are beginning to ask their Ministers about this organization which claims to represent 40,000,000 Protestants.

"They can't explain the NCC study group, with the approval of the NCC president, urging recognition by this Country of Red China." The President is Bishop Reuben H Mueller.

"They can't explain the NCC issuing a document approving premarital sexual relations."

Mr. Hoover I have read pamphlets you have written to warn our young people, and just to think a church promotes this kind of thing. Don't Communist's try to break down moral?

"They can't explain the NCC's demand that Bible reading and prayer be out - lawed in schools."

"They can't explain top NCC officials' active participation in trying to Repeal the McCarran Act, which requires Communists in the Country to register with the justice Department.

"They can't explain the NCC's leaders' support the Communist Party in trying to abolish the House Un - American Activities Committee.

"They can't explain the NCC's role in the March on Washington.

"They can't explain the NCC involvement in the Mississippi mess.

"They can't explain what business the NCC has lobbying for federal aid to education.

This Country is going down hill because of this organization who give their votes to outlaw anything that's good, and vote for anything that degrades.

Washington D. C.

April - 1965 -

Dear Sir: -

I have been wanting to write this long while, and after much thought took this time to do so.

First of all the National Council of Churches, they blame them for being Communist inspired and I believe it. As one of our Ministers said, — "They are the James' Brothers in disguise".

My husband and I are very sincere Christians. We read our Bible, live a prayer-ful life, and no one can fool us about Christianity.

The reason I tell you this is that I belonged to a United Presbyterian Church (all denominations that merged with the Presbyterians —, now called Presbyterians U. S. A.) for 17 years and my husband about 25 years. We noticed their leniency in letting members join. A good Christian Church I have a list of Bible questions to ask and if everyone is a Christian - then they can tell who they are taking in as members.

Most of the older denominations have become apostate and liberal (gone to the work instead of spiritual) and individuals can come to their Church one Sunday, and join the next Sunday and don't tell me that news of this looseness don't get around. One of our ministers said it is his belief that Communists have infiltrated many of our Nation's Churches, Seminaries and Divinity schools. In fact he told of a Communist defector's testimony before a Congressional Committee that the party felt the best way to destroy religion in America is to infiltrate religion itself.

Has this not happened? Did they not get one thing accomplished by getting Bible reading and prayer out of Communist schools? The National Council of the Churches endorsed this, and why would you think they would? Churches who

Well, but if it all, the way of allowing people to join their Churches. Anyone can join. They don't know really who they take in as members. All they boast of is how many members they have - not that they are Christians.
Getting anyone in as members entitles the members to vote at their Congregational meetings. That way these people get at the head of the Church and if they are intelligent enough they can go to Presbyteries (their district meetings) get voted in, then to Synods, the National organization.
This way they get to send recommendations to Congress, vote on all issues etc.

You can tell the trend of voting especially of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. They voting these days is everything but Christian.
Who gets at the head of these Churches. My husband and I as well as over 100 members left the U. P. Church. Good Christians,
Mr. Hoover, are slowly going out.

if the United Presbyterian Church wrote a letter to the State Clerk, Presbytery of Phoenix, and said, "I'm instructing you to erase my name from the roster of the Minutes of the Presbytery of Phoenix, of the United Presbyterian Church of U. S. A."

I cannot ^{be said} give loyal support to a Church that, through official action and pronouncements unites with the forces of evil and goes on record as opposing historic beliefs and doctrines that made us great and lent dignity and meaning to our preaching. I refer to the General Assembly's action relating to "public prayers, religious observances, religious holidays, Christian scenes, Bible reading in schools, and on school property; opposition to Sunday Closing laws and other delivencences one would expect atheistic groups to take, but never such action from a Church bearing the name and banner of our Lord and Savior." I cannot longer find fellowship in a Church that blindly submits to the rule of Dr Eugene Carson Blake with listed known Communists deliberately breaks the laws of a sovereign state, and leads marches that can inspire hate, and provoke violence.

And I yield to no man in desire to see minority groups enjoying full and restricted blessings and opportunities my own race enjoys. When my Church becomes the captive to the ultra liberal and Apostate National Council of Churches, and the World Council and yields obedience to socialistic, political hierarchy, my Church can no longer claim my support and respect. I will not sin by remaining silent while my Presbytery considers becoming a member of the N.A.A.C.P., a militant political organization.
Our denomination's new media, all papers and magazines have been captured by the ultra liberals, and serve notice that there is no

Mr. Hoover you can tell now what the National Council of Churches is but yet they can get anywhere with Government under the guise of Christianity. A cloak Wolves in sheep's clothing.

This good Christian man, Dr. Poling served that denomination nearly fifty years. He said that all those years they were "giants in the land, proud of their Church because they were accredited ministers. They thought God's truths. Today when we meet the Church at its best, it is lost. He said that today there is a crushing hand of shame for his beloved Church, and great sadness in his heart.

Dr. Poling comes from a long line of ministers.

What then, is in back of these Churches?
And they are using the good Christians still in their denominations, who haven't left yet, for a front to do the dirty work.

Our Jesus said, "Thou shalt love the Lord with all thy heart, and with all Thy soul etc." Love is something from the heart of man that expresses itself in deeds and words. The Civil Rights bill doesn't produce love, but hate, and bitterness. The idea that everyone in this Nation is a child of God, and there should be brotherhood of men is completely in error. Dear Mr. Hoover:

The new leisure and its implications challenges all thoughtful people in America. It is developing so fast it is difficult to assess the total impact on our life and culture even in specialized fields of interest and concern. In 1961 the National Council of Churches began a series of studies on the implications of leisure and the church. The first phase of this study produced the book entitled Religion and Leisure in America by Robert Lee, Director of the Center for Christian Social Ethics at San Francisco Theological Seminary.

One of the important conclusions of this study was the need for a task force to guide the churches in their response to the challenge of the new leisure. In this rapid social change there has been little interdisciplinary exchange on the nature of the situation in this new leisure in which man finds himself. There is need for a free interchange between laymen in several secular disciplines with church leaders who are also concerned with this opportunity. There has been almost no sharing of effective approaches to the new leisure. The church can serve a reconciling function as she brings together in conversation and action the leisure creators, leisure users and those who provide leisure services.

To assist the churches in this process the National Council of Churches has decided to create a Task Force on Leisure. This task force will be a small group of representatives from the secular community and the church to help the church plan a strategy for policy and action to meet the new challenge. Professor Paul Douglass, Director of the Center for Practical Politics at Rollins College and former President of American University in Washington, D.C., will be the chairman for this task force. Will you be a member of this special Task Force on Leisure?

The first meeting of the task force will be at the Center for Continuing Education at Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey to begin at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 24th and continue through the evening of Monday, October 25th. Prior to the meeting you will receive study materials produced thus far by the National Council of Churches and a brief survey of the present programs of the churches dealing with leisure.

Among the tasks within the broad concern of leisure the task force will guide the present program of the National Council of Churches and direct the 15 regional conferences on leisure now in process in the United States and Canada. It will consider the possibility of a national consultation on the church and leisure early in 1967. This task force will also give considerable impetus to an international consultation on leisure under the World Council of Churches in the fall of 1967 or early 1968.

Will you let me know if you will serve on this task force? The churches need to hear strong voices like yours to assess and plan their effective ministry and action in the new world of leisure.

I will appreciate any and all material, pro and con, that you can furnish me concerning the activities of this organization, as a group, and as individual council members.

You are, no doubt, familiar with the material that has been presented in "The Don Smoot Report". In your opinion, can this be accepted as authentic?

I have talked at some length with our minister and others, concerning the membership of our church in the Council, and the sad word always is that there is nothing that we can do about it. We were not asked to join, and there is no way to get out.

We lost our only son in Korea, after 51 night-fighter missions up to the Yalu, and my wife's only nephew lost his life in World War II.

It is pretty difficult for me to subscribe to what I hear about the N. C. C., and I'll greatly appreciate some really authenticated material concerning its activities, which I am sure you can furnish.

The Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a Methodist Minister serving a church in [REDACTED]. There is in our community a faction of individuals who [REDACTED] be a disruptive influence within our church community. The point of contention appears to be centered about the National Council of Churches. Supported by what they claim is documentary evidence, these individuals go about publicly claiming that it is a fact that the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports that the National Council of Churches is predominantly composed of communists, and thereby have as their intent to disrupt the American way of life. It has also been stated that the F. B. I. has found some of the Bishops of the Methodist Church to be communists. It is further reported that you have personally stated that the National Council of Churches is a communist organization.

The members of our church are concerned because it is not our desire as Christians to support any organization that is for the promotion of communism. It is out of grave concern that we turn to you for some statement as to whether or not there is any validity in the above claims. We would further like to know whether or not any investigation has been undertaken by your agency with regard to communism within the National Council of Churches, and if investigation has been undertaken, then what conclusions have been drawn with regard to it being communist, or communist dominated, or communist related. I appreciate the fact that you are the head of a fact finding agency of our government, and it is to you that I appeal for the facts in this matter.

Mr. J. Lee Brown,
P.O. 1.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Brown:

It is with a great deal of urgency and importance that I write to you. As a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, I am serving on the Church Council, 1962-1967, and as a member of the Church Council, I will be a part of the history of teaching the Gospel of Christ.

The matter of being a participating member of the National Council of Churches of Christ is before us at this time. A group of our select laymen is to meet with our General Council within the next 10 days to discuss our withdrawal from the National Council of Churches. One of the concerns is Communist infiltration in this body. Do you have any information concerning this matter? Are any of the leaders of the National Council of Churches Communist inspired, or do they belong to any Communist front organizations?

I am neither "for" nor "against" the National Council of Churches, but we all wish our Church that we must resolve this matter before us at this time. This is why I seek the above information.

There is not a member of our congregation who does not seek divine guidance in the proper direction in this matter. The Stewardship of time, talent, and money of this Church has been felt around the world many times in your world missions, and we want to continue to serve as there have done and left us this great heritage. Our first this problem that is with us must be resolved.

Mr. Brown, we have to learn to know of your status in national respect for a positive or negative answer. Please help us in any way you can.

Thanking you for your assistance and wishing you continued success.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir;

Our minister stated in his sermon yesterday that while you were in Atlanta early sixties you told him flatly that there were no known communists in the National Council of Churches.

This is hard to believe from all the evidence or at least all the indications from many sources.

Will you verify this statement? and if true then would you say that the same thing is true today?

If not true will you kindly advise me where such information can be obtained?

I would like to know the names of the personnel of the NCC, and their backgrounds.

We have had several meetings on this matter, but so far to no avail, as our fears have been called ridiculous, nevertheless the membership of our church is very upset about the matter, and we will greatly appreciate any information you may be able to supply regarding this matter.

Dear Clyde:

For two days I have attempted to call you but was informed that you were out of town. I would like to have discussed the following matter with you over the telephone.

I am an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church of [redacted] and in our recent Elder's meetings, there has developed some rather bitter controversy over the possibility of our withdrawing our financial support of the National Council of Churches.

If the majority of the Elders take the attitude that this support should be withdrawn, because of some of the activities of the National Council of Churches are not approved of by the majority of the Elders, and since it is only a slight majority, there is going to be left among us some rather bitter feelings. This is very unfortunate in a religious organization.

It has been noted in our Elder's meetings that Mr. Hoover has stated that there is some Communistic filtration into the National Council of Churches, and this is something we would like to know. That is, what are the facts of your findings in regard to the National Council of Churches, and any statements you might have from Mr. Hoover relative to same which might help us solve our local controversy among the Elders.

Would you please inform me?

Kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

For the past ten years or so I have been very active and interested in United Church Women. It has been brought to my attention that this group is backed by the National Council of Churches and that this latter organization is Communist.

It doesn't seem possible that the above could be true. What I am more inclined to believe is that, running true to form, the Communists only pick the more influential groups as fronts for their subversive activities. This would be their reason for working through the National Council of Churches and ultimately, the United Church Women.

While living in [redacted] for twenty-two years, we constantly heard rumors of the above and now in [redacted] the church women of the city refuse to affiliate themselves with the United Church Women for the reasons given above. For my personal satisfaction and I should think for the benefit of many other sincerely-interested women, would you please give us the true picture of the situation stated. Is the above true? If not, women in general must be given the straight of the conditions existing. Only when we know we know, can we feel that we are doing the best thing for our country.

I have been concerned for sometime about statements made by various writers concerning the number of Communist and Communist sympathizers either associated or in responsible positions with our National Council of Churches. I have always had the highest regard and respect for your leadership and the job you are doing. Things have arrived to the point that one can hardly believe a lot of what he reads and hears. We have a controversy here in North Carolina in regard to our Speaker Law. Your remarks favoring this law was inserted in our local News & Observer in the inside column on the second page. This was on Monday following a full page item against the law by Paul Green of Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Your letter of June 3rd has been received.

I have never made any statements concerning publication of the National Council of Churches or about anyone associated with this organization being sympathetic with the communist movement and therefore, I have not written a letter of apology to anyone.

Information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. In view of this I am sure you will see why I cannot make any statements whatever concerning the National Council of Churches.

I have said on another occasion that "It is very encouraging to me to learn of the increasing amount of literature exposing communism emanating from the Methodist Church and its related organizations. Your great Church, with its far-flung educational and social institutions, is in a position to make a substantial and lasting contribution to the defeat of communism. I feel confident that this will be done. This global struggle is essentially spiritual in nature. Therefore, no clergymen or Christian laymen can avoid it. On the contrary, there is the need for all of us to engage ourselves rationally and constructively in this struggle, persevering until communism is overcome by vastly superior thinking and living."

Dear

Your letter of May 25th has been received.

With respect to your inquiry concerning the National Council of Churches, I would like to point out that the FBI does not issue clearances or nonclearances of any type and that our files are confidential and available for official use only, pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice. A representative of the FBI did talk to the group mentioned in the article you named; however, they were not given any information from our files to substantiate their conclusion. Any conclusions drawn by them are strictly their own and it should be clearly understood that our inability to furnish information to this group should not be the basis for inferring either that we have or have not "cleared" this organization.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

A magazine The Christian, May 9, 1965 has an article called "Factual Answers to the Charges". The author is John Rodgers who is, according to the magazine, a well known Tulsa attorney.

In his article he states that " Reporting on a comprehensive study of the NCC, a 21-member commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church told the church's 1964 General Convention:

"We recognize that some of the criticism of the NCC comes from political extremists who, in their desire to discredit the NCC, do not weigh their charges carefully. Nevertheless, we have tried honestly to investigate their accusations to the effect that the NCC is Communist conspiracy or that it harbors Communist sympathizers and allies. In their examination therefore, the members of our study committee met with personnel of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but were not able to discover any fact or record that would support such charges. We conclude that they are false."

Is it possible to secure a copy of this particular meeting?

May I have any information which you have on the National Council of Churches?

I have also heard much criticism of the John Birch Society. Has it been investigated and if so, are the results of the investigation available?

I would appreciate any information on any of these or other pertinent matters.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently, I have had an increasingly amount of concern with Communist activities in the United States. Of greatest concern is the part they may be playing in our church activities. Even though I have always respected our clergy, I cease to be amazed at their views concerning foreign policy and their approach to domestic policies. Inasmuch as they are applying pressure on our government, I think its up to the laymen to find out if their feelings are based on moral issues alone or are being influence by outsiders and are being used for a cause. I resent the National Council of Churches saying they represent 40,000 000 Americans when they dont - the main reason being is of their views. I have read their resolutions and have studied their approach to the civil rights cause and their beliefs concerning our foreign policy. I detest the part they are making it a virtue to go to jail, avocate breaking laws when there is a lawful way of obtaining their goals. This is not of the true tradition of the church in bygone years. Is it not conceivable that someone is using our rich religious heritage as a cover to cause riots, discontent and resentment? Is it not possible that they are playing on the feelings of the average American to create bitterness and to cause a breakdown in the American spirit. Young ministers are obessed with the civil rights movement and nothing more - strange as it may seem, they have very little to offer.

Is it possible for you to advise me on the "status" of the National Council of Church, the old Federal Council of churches and their activities today. Your efforts would be highly appreciated. I have written to the National Council of Churches to obtain more information concerning their views; however, your office may have more detailed and unbias information.

Dear Sir:

Too long have I neglected to thank and congratulate you on the wonderful work you are doing for our country. A person as dedicated as you have proved yourself to us does not expect expressions of appreciation, but no doubt it is heartening to you to know that there are those who are at least conscious of some of your activity.

My principle concern has been the role of the National Council of Churches. It has been frightening to me to think of the impact of its cloak of respectability and how its pronouncements could influence all social, political and economic aspects of our lives. I'm beginning to wonder which came first, the National Council of Churches or the United Nations.

I am a Presbyterian and fortunate enough to be a member of a church which does not include an appropriation in its budget to the National Council of Churches. I have friends in Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal and Catholic churches in Atlanta who want authentic material to present to their sessions, etc. I thought your booklets, "Soviet Role or Christian Renewal" and "Communist Propaganda in the Christian Pulpit," would be helpful.

Please send me these booklets. Reimbursement will be forthcoming.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

As an active member of the Methodist Church, I am very concerned about the growing criticism of the National Council of Churches.

I believe that the Church is the foundation of this country. If people lose faith in the Church for want of factual, authoritative information concerning such organizations as the National Council of Churches in which the Church is so heavily involved, then this country has had its foundation destroyed.

Could you please tell me where I might find reliable, documented information concerning the background and character of the Council and the persons holding influential positions in the Council? Has communism successfully and significantly infiltrated the National Council of Churches?

Mr. Hoover, Americans need to be told the truth regarding the National Council of Churches. I know the position of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in not being allowed to divulge any of its information. Yet, it seems ridiculous that the world's most educated country should die because its people were denied the facts concerning the erosion of its foundation. Surely there is some way the American people can have this matter accurately resolved.

Thank you very much for your help to me, and most of all thank you for your untiring efforts as Director of the Bureau in spite of the unwarranted, untrue attacks and criticism of you and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Bishop Muller:

I am writing to you as head of the National Council of Churches in America since your name was given to me by the Inter-Church Office in New York.

I have read with great dismay in the papers that Protestant clergymen are participating in a protest against our efforts in Vietnam. This grieves me greatly, although being a Lutheran I was relieved to see that no Lutherans were participating, according to the papers. I am a Sunday School teacher and the daughter-in-law of a man who in his lifetime was a Lutheran Minister in Pennsylvania.

Having read "None Dare Call It Treason", I was upset by the remarks about Communist infiltration, especially in the Methodist Church. Unfortunately, I now wonder if this isn't true.

Now anyone can feel that business can be done with the Communists is beyond me and, while I realize that there are a great many well-meaning people involved, they are doing great harm to our country's image.

I would appreciate the National Council of Churches disavowing these people or I am afraid I can only believe that the author of "None Dare Call It Treason" speaks with authority.

Respectfully yours,

We love our Church, and for the past two years have made contributions to the Building Fund only, as we do not wish to aid and abet the National Council of Churches.

In December they published an article in The Presbyterian Survey quoting you, as saying there were no communists in The National Council of Churches, at the same time they said they did not give financial aid, to the element that went to Mississippi last summer, but we know they spent $640,000 on this project, and sent another $30,000 to bail those, out of jail that got into trouble.

If it does not violate the rules of your office, will you please tell use whether or not there are communist in the National Council of Churches.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am distressed by the persistent rumors that are abroad these days concerning the possibility of communist infiltration and activity within the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, its leaders and staff. While I find it difficult to accept personally I do realize that communists will and do endeavor to infiltrate where they can to achieve whatever advantage may be possible for the realization of their vicious objectives. The difficult thing is that some people accept rumors and accusations by innuendoes as fact and are swayed in their thinking to the point where fearful and suspicious of very honest clergy and churches on the local level as well as those in official categories on the national level of organization. I have one such man in this little congregation I am serving, who, because he listens to, and evidently believes what Dan Smoot has said about the Council, now refuses to come to church because our national body, the Lutheran Church in America, holds membership in the Council and utilizes some of its services. He follows Smoot's advice.

I should like to know whether there is any evidence of communist infiltration of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. If there are, they should be exposed and removed. If there are communists in any position in the Council, why have they not been exposed by the F.B.I.

Mr. Smoot's publications indicate that he was at one time connected with the F.B.I., which by implication would indicate that he is reliably informed about those claims on which he dares to speak. But I would like to question just how reliable is Mr. Smoot's information? And also, I cannot but wonder why he is no longer with the F.B.I.

I love my country and all it stands for, and my appreciation for this heritage grows with my years. I also love my Church and realize how greatly its Gospel has contributed to our national heritage. But I cannot stand to see either our nation or the Church sabotaged by false accusers whatever their color.

I shall appreciate hearing from you.

FROM : W. C. Sullivan

SUBJECT: REVEREND JAMES C. MOORE,
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY ACTION
NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE
CHURCHES OF CHRIST
475 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
NEW YORK, NEW YORK

The above-captioned clergyman has been known to me for a few years. He is a very serious young man, formerly with the United States Marines, and I have found him to be quite reliable. While in Washington, he dropped by to tell me that five times within the past few months, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King has tried to persuade the National Council of the Churches to sponsor some of his activities. Each time Reverend Moore told me the National Council refused absolutely to give sponsorship to Dr. King. He said this would continue to be the policy of the Council.

I asked Reverend Moore about some of the press accounts referring to a resolution on Vietnam adopted by the National Council of Churches recommending that warfare cease in Vietnam. Reverend Moore said that he had a copy with him and would pass it on to me. He added that the extreme right-wing critics of the National Council had been making false charges concerning this resolution saying that the National Council was opposed to war against the communists and were advocating giving in to communist demands in Vietnam. Reverend Moore said this is completely false and pointed to the resolution given to me wherein it stated "the concern of the United States for the freedom and independence of all peoples." He also pointed to a key paragraph which reads to the effect that the National Council urged the United States Government "to negotiate a cease fire and a settlement of the war which will attempt to achieve the independence, freedom and self-determination of the people of South Vietnam."

Memo Mr. Sullivan to Mr. Belmont
RE: REVEREND JAMES C. MOORE
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY ACTION
NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE
CHURCHES OF CHRIST
475 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Mr. Moore pointed out that this whole position taken by the National Council was in accord with President Johnson's "unconditional negotiation" concept; that nowhere would the Council take a position that the United States should not defend itself even by war, if necessary, against the communist world. The resolution is enclosed.

ACTION:

For your information.

[Handwritten initials and a checkmark are visible in the lower right area of the page.]

RESOLUTION ON VIETNAM

Adopted by the General Board
February 25, 1965

Recognizing the concern of the United States for the freedom and independence of all peoples;

Acknowledging our responsibility to the people of South Vietnam who have been depending upon our aid;

Expressing our distress at the continued violence, war, and loss of life of all the peoples involved;

Believing that mankind must learn to settle its disputes around the conference table rather than on the battlefield;

Welcoming the initiative taken by the Secretary General of the United Nations in the present crisis and sharing his conviction that, "only political and diplomatic methods of negotiation and discussion may find a peaceful solution" to the problem;

Conscious that there are many difficulties and dilemmas facing our country in negotiations for political settlement, but mindful also of the seriousness of prolonged military conflict, the danger of escalation of hostilities, and the possibility of a third World War.

The General Board of the National Council of Churches urges the United States Government:

To engage in persistent efforts to negotiate a cease fire and a settlement of the war which will attempt to achieve the independence, freedom and self-determination of the people of South Vietnam;

To utilize United Nations assistance in achieving a solution and in seeking to reduce the area of conflict by effective border control and internal policing; and

To give bold and creative leadership to a broad international development program for the MEKONG Region and to continue full scale U. S. economic and technical assistance where necessary.

The General Board pledges support and cooperation in the urgent tasks of reconciliation and reconstruction in Vietnam.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
 Federal Bureau of Investigation,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We (the members of the Official Board of the [Redacted] Church) need your help. Several of us have read and/or heard that the National Council of Churches has a large number of Communists, fellow travelers etc. in it. It is said that a book published by the Circuit Riders, Inc., 110 Government Place, Cincinnati 2, Ohio states that at least 658 officials of the N. C. C. have Communist-front records.

We have read other articles that indicate the lack of Christian motives by the N. C. C.

If the N. C. C. is going the wrong way we wish to bring the Methodists and so many others out of it if we can.

Our next meeting of the Official Board will be held on May 2, 1965 and we will need our evidence to present at this meeting that will be held just prior to our annual Methodist Conference.

Your help will be deeply appreciated.

Yours very truly

Dear [REDACTED]

Your letter of March 31st has been received, and I want to thank you very much for your kind sentiments and expressions of confidence in this Bureau.

While I would certainly like to be of service to you, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. Therefore, I trust you will understand why I cannot furnish specific data along the lines you have mentioned. However, you might be interested in the estimates made by the communists themselves. In February, 1952, Party leader Gus Hall made a public statement to the effect that the "state-of-mind" membership of the Party might run as high as 100,000. During a press interview at St. Louis, Missouri, in early 1954, he stated that the frequently published figure of 10,000 for total Communist Party membership in the United States was "quite accurate." According to Hall, there are in addition to this total number another 20,000 or 30,000 people who believe in communist leadership in certain areas of the political struggle. It is our estimate that for every hard-core communist, there are at least 10 sympathizers ready and willing to do the Party's work.

The Communist Party in this country has attempted to infiltrate and subvert every segment of our society. Its efforts are being thwarted by the FBI's internal security programs, by investigation, arrest and prosecution of Party functionaries and by widespread, intelligent public opposition to the communist philosophy. These achievements are being accomplished through orderly, legal procedures. In this respect I am enclosing some material outlining the Federal Government's action. Additional proceedings have taken place against the Communist Party under the Internal Security Act of 1950. On February 21, 1954, the Government's petition was denied by the U. S. Court of Appeals and the Department of Justice then petitioned the Supreme Court to review the lower court's prior decision. On June 8, 1954, the Supreme Court denied the Government's petition. At the present time a new indictment has been returned and the motion to consolidate presented. Trial is scheduled for the week of October 11, 1955, in the U. S. District Court, Washington, D. C.

Concerning John Neale, I can assure you he is not affiliated with the FBI in any manner, and his personal ventures, comments and opinions are strictly his own and do not represent this Bureau in any respect whatsoever.

I have repeatedly emphasized it is imperative for Americans to study the objectives and operations of the communist conspiracy if we are to effectively resist its growing influence. Perhaps you may wish to read my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." These were written in order to help readers gain an insight into the strategy and tactics of communists both in this country and abroad. Copies may be available at your local library.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly send reply to several questions:

1. Has there ever been an investigation of Communist infiltration in the National Council of Churches?
2. If there has, is there a figure available as to the number who may be members of this party, or of their fellow travelers?
3. Why have we not been able to enforce the Internal Security Act of 1950, which was to register Communists, their finances, etc., as other political organizations of this nation do?
4. A statement in the Pittsburgh Press, Saturday, March 27, mentioned the latter statement in regard to the future investigation of the KKK.
5. Where can we secure information concerning the Reuther Memoranda to Mr. Kennedy, and has this ever been denied ~~by~~ Mr. Reuther of his affiliation with the Communist party, as has been publicized by some anti-Communist broadcasters?

I write this letter today following discussion with my pastor, who firmly defends the National Council of Churches. We had John Noble speak at our church last Tuesday, the 23rd, and this man's message, and seminar the following day have left some points to be cleared. Mr. Noble did not mention the NCC, but questions were asked, and he tactfully answered each of them.

It was a real privilege to have him with us. He spoke to more than 1500 high school students that day, in addition to about 450 at night.

Will you also tell me what his (Noble's) affiliation is with the FBI? He mentioned some committee, but I have forgotten. I firmly believe all he related, and yet it is difficult to convince others. Education is the answer!

Bless you for your dedication to this nation's safety. We need men and women of courage and determination that this nation will remain a free one. Bless you always, may God keep you in His care.

I received your letter of April 5th, with enclosure, and I want to thank you for your expression of confidence and generous remarks concerning my administration of the FBI. It is hoped our future endeavors will continue to merit your support and approval.

With respect to your inquiries, this Bureau does not have a list of sources such as you mentioned available for distribution. Further, individuals from time to time have made inquiries concerning the National Council of Churches. However, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. Therefore, this Bureau is not in a position to furnish any data and the hope is expressed that the correspondent will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to this group. Dear Mr. Hoover:

As a member of a recently organized study group, I have chosen Communism in the National Council of Churches as my subject to study, collect information, and report on same. I have written for the Dan Smoot report on this subject. Do you have any other sources of information to suggest?

Enclosed is an article which appeared in the March 1965 issue of the Indiana Christian. Your name is mentioned without any actual statements from your communications. Could you please supply me with further information on this article?

Also, our Sunday School Department is undergoing a study of and making changes in the literature taught to our young people. Much of it is now coming from the Christian Board of Publication, St. Louis, Mo., called the "Bethany Uniform Lessons." This is a non-profit organization supplying the churches of the "Disciples of Christ" Do you have information on possible infiltration of this organization?

This is aside from the subject just mentioned, but of increasing deep concern. The HCUA is planning to investigate the Klu Klux Klan - all well and good; but, why not the NAACP also? I have read an article stating that Martin Luther King, Jr. belongs to sixty (60) Communist front organizations. Is there fact to support this?

I will appreciate whatever information you can furnish on the above subjects and want you to know that you and your men are doing a fine job. Don't back down from these Commies!

the National Council and the World Council of Churches. They accomplished this by circulating factual statements, writing letters to editors of local papers, and by personal witness. Their efforts brought communications from J. Edgar Hoover and J. Irwin Miller, former president of the National Council, whose home and place of business is in Columbus. Mr. Miller wrote to Bill Herod as follows:

"Let me begin this letter by stating that I am a layman of a native Hoosier family which has lived in Bartholomew County for the past 140 years. I am a registered Republican, have been a Rotarian for the past 30 years, and a former president of the local Chamber of Commerce. I have been the active head of a business for 30 years, and during that time have been before tax courts, bargained with labor unions, experienced strikes, dealt with customers, bankers, and had all the standard experiences of business managers. In addition, I am a veteran of World War II and served in the Pacific on an aircraft carrier. I have also been an active church member all my life, and each of my grandfathers was a minister in the Christian Church.

"Out of this background, I can state to you without any qualification whatsoever that the leadership of the National Council of Churches understands in a very profound manner the fundamental conflict between Christianity and communism, and is one of the strongest constructive forces at work in this country against communism. If I thought that this statement was not in all respect true, I would certainly never have consented to serve as its president or be active in its work. I feel that the National Council of Churches is offering one of the most significant and constructive witnesses for Christianity in our society, and I am delighted to devote my time to its work, for I know of no better place to make my own Christian contribution."

Editor's Note—We believe that this is a good illustration of this kind of witness that all informed Christians should make when the responsible agencies or the leadership of our churches come under attack by irresponsible persons and groups. The current attacks on the National Council of the Churches of Christ

Bill was at that time president of the Indiana Seventh District Christian Youth Fellowship (Christian Churches-Disciples). He is now in his first year of training at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma, and on his way to the mission field if the opportunity comes.

His colleagues were two Presbyterians and a Methodist: David W. (Dave) Wilton, then a senior in Greenfield High School, who plans to be a teacher; David R. I received your letter of March 23rd and want to thank you for your generous remarks concerning my administration of the FBI. It is hoped our future endeavors will continue to merit your support and approval.

While I certainly would like to be of service to you, there is no indication from your communication as to whom I allegedly wrote. Frequently, individuals have made inquiries concerning the National and World Council of Churches; however, information appearing in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. As a result, this Bureau is not in a position to furnish any information concerning these groups and it is hoped you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to them.

Enclosed is some literature I trust will be of interest.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover, NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

In a recent report on page 22, in the March, 1965 issue of The Indiana Christian I read of an episode which occurred in Greenfield, Indiana.

The report concerns four or five young men who "went into action" in March, 1963, when some people in Greenfield circulated misstatements about the National Council of the World Council of Churches." According to the article these men circulated factual statements to counter the misstatements. Quoting again, "Their efforts brought communications from J. Edgar Hoover and J. Duane Miller, former president of the National Council, whose home and place of business is in Columbus." (End).

A letter is printed concerning Mr. Miller's views but nothing concerning what your communication was represented.

I would like to know what your communication said. I really feel

A great amount has been shown to indicate that the National Council

I am just a bit curious about what your communication contained. The fact that your name was mentioned and absolutely nothing was presented as to your comments makes me wonder.

A great amount has been shown to indicate that the National Council of Churches needs to at least become aware of its association, if not more aware of gauging its membership. The reports that the N. C. C. is involved in "front organizations is bothersome to me. I certainly could not support any organization of such leanings knowingly.

I want to thank you personally, or at least by letter, for the dedication and service you have rendered to our great country.

I received your letter of March 23rd and want to thank you for your interest in writing as well as your very kind sentiments concerning my work. You may wish to know that President Johnson has waived mandatory retirement regarding me by an Executive Order, and it is my desire to remain in my present capacity as long as I can be of service to our Nation.

With respect to your inquiry, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. I regret I cannot be of help in this instance but trust you understand the necessary reasons for this policy. It is hoped you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to the National Council of Churches.

Enclosed is some literature which I trust you will find informative.

Dear Mr. Hoover

I am a member of a church committee which is assigned the task of gathering information concerning communist infiltration and influence in the governing bodies of our churches.

We will be particularly concerned with activities of the National Council of Churches in these fields.

1. N. C. C. cooperation with the World Council of Churches which has appointed Communists to its boards as voting members and officers.

2. N. C. C. activities in the civil rights marches and possible collaborations with communist organizations

3. Efforts of the N. C. C. to dilute the influence of the Bible and the N. C. C. approval of banning the Bible from our public schools.

Any information you can furnish will be very greatly appreciated. Thank you for your devoted efforts along these lines.

I hope you never retire.

Dear [Redacted]

Your letter of March 18th has been received.

With respect to your inquiry, the statement to which you have referred has been taken partially from one of my statements made previously. You may be interested in knowing information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. In addition, the FBI, being an investigative agency of the Federal Government, neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions concerning the character or reputation of any organization, publication or individual, nor does this Bureau give "license" to any individuals or societies to publicly praise or condemn any organization or person.

For the reasons I have set forth, I can assure you that the FBI has not made any public statement praising or condemning the Federal Council of Churches or the National Council of Churches. Therefore, I trust you will understand our position in these matters.

Enclosed is some literature I trust will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover;

I have just read a pamphlet entitled "The Truth About the National Council of Churches". This paper is taken from Presbyterian Survey of December, 1964.

The following passage, supposedly taken from a letter written by you, is included in the paper:- "that neither on this occasion nor at any other time, have I made any statement criticizing the Federal Council of Churches or the National Council of Churches."

I would very much like to know if you ever wrote the above passage, and, if so, if you hold the same opinion of the National Council of Churches at this time.

I am a member of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Since this church takes an active part in the activities of the NCC, your opinion of this organization is of great importance to me and to others of the congregation who have doubts about the motives of the NCC.

Your reply will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

My Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am an American patriot, the mother of two college students, the wife of a college professor, a former teacher of twelve years, next door to [Redacted] and a member of the United Church Women in the [Redacted] area.

Presently, I am deeply concerned with the patriotism of the people of our great United States. There seems to be no love of country as I knew it when I taught flag respect and civics. In this I refer directly to the politician of our country and now even the church. Before I work further for the United Church Women I feel that I honestly wish to know exactly what it is I am sponsoring.

Since presently, it appears to me that the Church is sponsoring the Communists, I feel that I need your advice.

Will you please advise me as to whether Martin L. King is or is not a communist? Does he associate with known communists? Is there any known association of the communists with the Council of Churches' program? W

I have noted in recent meetings of the United Church Women that several women seem to be very doubtful as to the so called "good intent" of Martin L. King. I simply cannot appreciate or sanction such childish, rioting type of behavior, no matter what the intent!

100-50769-1346

In the sincere interest of our country I would deeply appreciate any advice which you will give to me and I shall use it in the name of our country and for the betterment of the church.

Thank you, most sincerely, for all you have done and for the good for which you stand. Please expose these vote getting dishonest politicians.

Very sincerely,

CORRESPONDENCE

March 19, 1965

The Hon. John B. Anderson
The House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Anderson:

At the suggestion of our mutual friend, [redacted] I am writing you and sharing a problem which has developed in [redacted] it concerns accusations made against leading clergymen involved in the present racial conflict and also in the National Council of Churches. The question is partly, of course, a matter of the clergy's participation in current national issues but, more specifically, in the quick application of the label communist. One of the involvements which makes this particularly acute for me is my being elected to the chairmanship of the [redacted] for the coming year.

Next week [redacted] the [redacted] plans to take a stand on the racial issue, particularly, as it involves [redacted] I agree with others that many of the clergy have been too silent too long. Our negro ministers have been very effective in keeping the peace in our city, and they need our support.

At a small luncheon yesterday, which both [redacted] and I attended, a Chicago businessman, who seems to have considerable influence in some of the local circles, stated that there is documentary evidence that Dr. Martin Luther King is a communist. This is difficult for us to believe. It seems incredible that he would have so much bi-partisan support as emphasized by the recent legislative events. Even more difficult to understand was the statement that the former president of the National Council of Churches, Dr. Edwin Dahlberg, Baptist pastor of [redacted] St. Louis, was also fronting for sixteen different communist associated organizations. As you undoubtedly know, Dr. Dahlberg is from a humble Swedish-American background and has been blessed in his ministry both as a pastor and an evangelist. It is difficult to know exactly how to answer these accusations. We are appealing to you for a statement from the Federal Bureau of Investigation which would clear the names of these two men. On the other hand, if they are avowed communists, we should know this as these men are of national reputation and leadership.

If it is at all possible to hear from you before our ministerial meeting, I would appreciate this immensely. Should this be impossible, we would be thankful for any reply in the near future.

I apologize for placing this burden on you, but I feel that these accusations cannot go without some answer which has solid and responsible origin. I wish to add that [redacted] was most commendatory of you in stating that he knew you would give us a fair and forthright answer. We are not asking for any statements other than just a simple positive or negative reply to our question. It would be unfair to involve you in all kinds of debate relative to the local churches' position with the National Council of Churches, who should go to Selma, Alabama, and a host of other current issues.

We look forward to sharing the morning of April 4 with you as well as the hope of being your chauffeur to [redacted].

Sincerely,
